- Do you get confused about who is providing what for your child? And when? And where?
- Is your child receiving services from more than two (2) county agencies (including school)? For example: Your child is in school and going to The Counseling Center or STEPS or YHRC.
- Are the services meeting the needs of your family?
- Is it hard to keep track of the plans for your child?
- Is the situation improving?

What is Service Coordination?

Service Coordination helps to bring children and families and the services they need together, in a way that is simple and organized.

Service Coordination can improve results for children and their families.

Service Coordination Plans are developed by a

- Family Team (including the parent)

Based upon:

- Family strengths
- Family wants and needs
- Family's culture, race and ethnic group
- Setting where services can be most helpful to the child- least restrictive

Who is eligible?

Children and youth with multiple needs from birth to age 18 and in some cases to the age of 22. Needs can be behavioral, emotional and/or physical. Needs may be identified by a child, family, a school or a counselor. Example - A child who is in school and has behaviors that effect academic progress, has experienced child abuse or neglect, uses drug and/or alcohol, sees a counselor outside of school.
